

SOLD

Autumn 2024

In the research environment Language Studies and Comparative Literature including Subject Didactics (SOLD), we apply a perspective which is both subject- and didactics-oriented, and the SOLD seminar series constitutes a focal point with the aim of promoting research in these fields.

I forskningsmiljön SOLD (Språk och litteraturvetenskap samt ämnenas didaktik) anlägger vi både ett ämnesorienterat och ett didaktiskt perspektiv på språk- och litteraturvetenskap. Seminarieverksamheten inom SOLD utgör en samlande punkt med syftet att främja forskning inom dessa fält.

28 August:

SOLD Shut up and write session
(Hosted by Olcay Sert)

Time: 13:15-15:00

Venue: U3-104, Turing (Västerås)

18 September:

Tasnim Qutait, MDU

(Hosted by Niclas Johansson)

Insecurity, Human Rights and Narrative Form in Middle East Diaspora Literature

Time: 13:15-15:00

Venue: Hypotesen (A6-010), Eskilstuna / also online on Teams

16 October:

Joanna Baumgart, MDU

My past, present, and future research

Time: 13:15-15:00

Venue: Ypsilon (U2-020) / Note that there will be an afterwork ☺

20 November:

Adam Brandt, Newcastle University

Teaching a conversational agent to talk:

Using Conversation Analysis in the development of an AI clinical assistant

Time: 13:15-15:00

Venue: Online on Zoom

18 December:

Olcay Sert, Elisabeth Wulff-Sahlén, Sofia Hort, Joanna Baumgart

AI-Write: Preliminary findings from an EU project

Time: 13:15-15:00

Venue: Ypsilon (U2-020), Västerås
